

Tim Hus

“Hockeytown”

- ‘I’ve been looking for 30 years for a young guy who’s proud to write songs about our country. I’d like to pass the torch to Tim Hus’.
Stompin’ Tom Connors
- Tim’s profile got a huge boost last summer when he was selected to tour with Stompin’ Tom Connors. It was Tom’s first tour in eight years and went from Ontario to Newfoundland.
- ‘Hockeytown’s subject matter covers all of the regions of Canada. Songs about Saskatchewan gophers and Ontario steelworkers and Nova Scotia’s Annapolis Valley and all of the Hockeytown’s in between.
- Tim takes the history of Canada seriously. He looks deep into the eyes and souls of his subjects and finds out what makes them tick. An artist who creates his songs from a place of deep respect and understanding.
- Tim Hus is a unique Canadian artist who performs over 200 dates a year. No doubt he will be coming to a stage in your town or city in the not too distant future.
- ‘Tim’s awesome. He’s one of my favorite Canadian songwriters. Nobody captures the rough-and-ready frontier imagery better than him.’
