All The Good 'Uns

Vol. 2

“The disappearing West has no better spokesman than Ian Tyson”

— LA Times

- Ian Tyson remains one of the most significant figures in the folk/roots world — and in the world of Western music; there are few artists who have better sung the stories of the vanishing cowboy tradition.
- Vol. 2 is his second “Best Of” collection and includes 19 songs from 1999 to 2012. Tyson’s first “Best Of,” All The Good 'Uns (SPCD 1234), is his best catalog seller and one of three Gold and one Platinum records he has earned on Stony Plain.
- From his early success with Ian & Sylvia in the ‘60s and his breakthrough country rock work with Great Speckled Bird, to his success as a songwriter (‘Four Strong Winds’, ‘Someday Soon’, ‘Summer Wages’, ‘Navajo Rug’, etc.) Tyson’s solo career has always reflected his life as a rancher in Alberta.
- Ian Tyson’s songs have been recorded over the years by Johnny Cash, Bob Dylan, Marianne Faithfull, Neil Young, Tom Russell, Blues Rodeo and countless others.
- Tyson celebrates his 80th birthday this year and still actively tours.
