

Amos Garrett Jazz Trio

Jazzblues

In addition to recording blues and roots music solo albums for Stony Plain Records, Amos has been leading his Jazz Trio for several years. The band's motto is "bringing blues back to jazz." The Trio's debut album, Jazzblues, reminds us all that blues was once a major part of the jazz world.

Best known as a legendary first call session guitar player (Bonnie Raitt, Elvin Bishop, Emmylou Harris, etc.), Amos was also a member of Paul Butterfield's Better Days and Maria Muldaur's bandleader. Amos has appeared on more than 150 artists' recordings in all genres of music.
