

ERIC BIBB

Blues People

- The concept of Blues People came to Eric Bibb when he was surrounded by his musical friends at the Blues Foundation Awards in Memphis. It inspired him to create a collection of songs about change and hope in collaboration with friends like Taj Mahal, The Blind Boys Of Alabama, Ruthie Foster (who he has been touring with) and Canadians Michael Jerome Browne and Harrison Kennedy along with many others.
- Bibb is one of the highest profile international roots music artists, winning “Acoustic Artist of the Year” at the Blues Music Awards and having been nominated for a Grammy.
- Bibb will be touring extensively to support this release.

Bibb was raised in New York City by a musical family; his father is noted folk singer Leon Bibb and his uncle was John Lewis, the world-famous jazz pianist. Legendary actor/singer/activist Paul Robeson was Eric's godfather. Pete Seeger, Odetta and Bob Dylan were known to visit the Bibb household. At age seven he was given his first guitar. At 16 his father asked him to play guitar in the house band for his local TV talent show. In 1970, Bibb left New York City for Paris, meeting legendary guitarist Mickey Baker, and began to focus on blues guitar. He later moved to Europe where he continuously plays shows and festivals. He now calls Finland home.
