Ronnie Earl

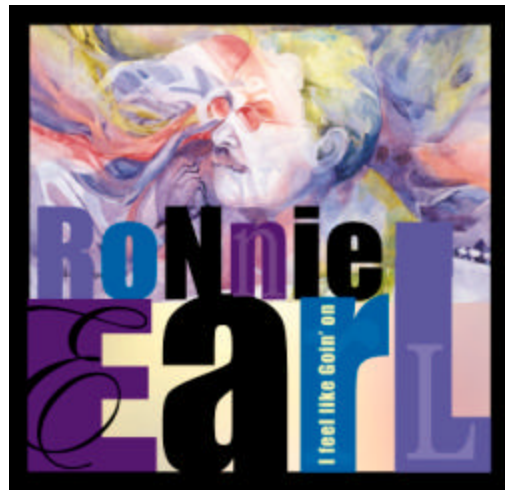

I Feel Like Goin' On – SPCD 1289

Ronnie Earl's Debut for Stony Plain - with over a dozen releases since the late eighties, Ronnie says this is his best studio blues recording and we feel the same way, delivering each note with ultimate passion

- ☉ Two Time W.C. Handy Award winner, Ronnie Earl is regarded as one of the finest blues guitarists of his generation.
- ☉ "I Feel Like Goin' On" is his favorite studio album of the dozens he has recorded.
- ☉ 74 minutes of blues, (almost all) instrumental, pure, intense, and soulful, Ronnie Earl recorded with his working band. One track features Boston's amazing Silver Leaf Gospel Singers.
- ☉ His healing, and spiritual approach to blues guitar playing delivers each note for the maximum amount of soul.
- ☉ The guitar album his many fans have been waiting for.
- ☉ Publicity support, blues radio tracker, and consumer advertising in major blues publications; Billboard, Living Blues, Blues Review plus more.
- ☉ POP – posters and postcards available.
